8 Tomorrow, I will return to England. I am
14 somewhat hopeful that my dear cousin,
20 Elizabeth, will welcome me pleasantly. However,
30 it is indeed possible that she will see my arrival
40 as a threat. She herself will be well aware that – 48 with the blood of my Tudor grandmother running 58 through my royal veins – I, too, have a noble and 64 righteous claim over the English throne.
72 I shall reinstall myself in Scotland – my people 79 need their sovereign. Following the passing of 87 my mother, Mary of Guise (Regent of Scotland),
95 I must reclaim my rightful position in Scotland.
105 I am Queen of Scotland by birth and Queen of 113 France through my marriage to my late husband.
122 I will live in hope of a positive outcome.
