YEAR GROUP: YEAR 3 and 4

Focus: Poetry- The Sound Collector by Roger McGough

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
https://youtu.be/cIL0kgnxJI Watch Roger McGough read his poem, The Sound Collector. Read the poem below out loud.  Rhyme- I would like you to use the copy of the poem below and write down all of the rhyming words that you can see. Game- Rhyme Time! Using the pictures from around the poem below or draw your own, cut them out and place them in a bag, bowl or just a pile. Choose one picture, write down as many rhyming words as you can.	 Onomatopoeia Read- The Sound collector again and identify all the onomatopoeia words (words that are sounds) Do you notice anything about all of the onomatopoeia words you have found? What do they all end with? Take a moment and listen to the sounds you can hear around you, what words would you use to describe them? Game- What made that sound? You can play this game with as many people as you like or just 2 of you. Each person takes it in turns to say a sound, the other person	During the poem The Sound Collector where do you think the sounds were being collected from? Today I want you to think about the sounds you can hear either inside your home or in your garden.  Fill in the sheet below or write it out yourself, with 4 sounds and the objects they came from. You can draw pictures when you have finished for each one. I would like you to create a silly verse with the sounds and objects you have chosen. This is my silly verse from the noises in my house.	 Comprehension- Use the poem to help you answer these questions. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Who is the sound collector? 2. Where did the sound collector put the sounds? 3. What time of day did the sound collector call? 4. What colour clothes is the sound collector wearing? Create a picture or a model of The Sound Collector. Or dress up like the sound collector and take a photo.	Think about what sounds you hear around school. In the hall we might hear, chewing, crunching, stomping, banging, clanging. In the classroom we might hear, laughing, chatting, shouting, flicking pages of books, scratching pencils, scraping chairs across the floor. How about the noises in the ICT suite or the toilets? Make a list of all these sounds like mine above. Think about where you hear these sounds? Your final task is to create a minimum of 3 verses about the sounds we hear at school and where we hear them.

The person with the most rhyming words wins that round. Repeat the game until all the pictures have been used once.	must guess what the sound is made by or comes from. Do this 10 times, the person with the most correct sounds and objects wins!	The tapping of the keyboard, The clicking of the keys, The rumbling of her tummy, The chopping of the cheese.  I have highlighted my rhyming words in yellow and  my onomatopoeia words in red. I wonder if you can work out what I was doing and what time of day it was?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. What is the poet describing in the line 'The crunching of the flakes'? 6. What onomatopoeia word is used to describe the bathtub? 7. Which two words rhyme in verse 4? 8. Why does the poem end with life will never be the same? If you couldn't hear sounds how would you communicate? I would like you to learn the song 'I can sing a rainbow' using sign language or Makaton. Watch this video to help you https://youtu.be/g5m3TLBmeuc	The first and last verse have been done for you. First Verse - A teacher arrived at school this morning Dressed all in black and grey Put every sound into a bag And carried it away Last Verse- A teacher arrived at school this morning He didn't leave his name Left us only silence Life will never be the same You might want to imagine each verse as a different room at school. Once you have completed your poem perform it to someone in your house. You may even want to video it and send it to us. Ks2@halesowen.dudley.sc.h.uk Remember each verse has 4 lines. The 2nd and the 4th line rhyme.

The Sound Collector - by Roger McGough

A stranger called this morning
Dressed all in black and grey
Put every sound into a bag
And carried it away

The whistling of the kettle
The turning of the lock
The purring of the kitten
The ticking of the clock

The popping of the toaster
The crunching of the flakes
When you spread the marmalade
The scraping noise it makes

The hissing of the frying pan
The ticking of the grill
The bubbling of the bathtub
As it starts to fill

The drumming of the raindrops
On the window pane
When you do the washing up
The gurgle of the drain

The crying of the baby
The squeaking of the chair
The swishing of the curtain
The creaking of the stair

A stranger called this morning
He didn't leave his name
Left us only silence
Life will never be the same
