The Lake

The vast lake, which stretched out for miles, was overlooked by clusters of wispy willows; their long weeping branches tickled the surface of the water in the whispering breeze. As the glistening water rippled softly towards the pebbled shore, it giggled and bubbled, sloshing to and fro. Each movement gently stroked the smooth, rounded stones before the refreshing water swept over them like a blanket.

As the sun set, a long shadow began to grow, as if desperately trying to reach the centre of the glassy lake. Majestic mountains encircled the tranquil scene, their eyes keeping watch from beneath their snow-capped peaks. Sturdy and strong, they stood proudly, protecting the lake like a precious gem.
