1) Write one antonym for the word wise.

2) What adjective does Rudyard Kipling use to describe the minute?

3) What is the main purpose of this poem?

4) If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you...
What quality do you think that Rudyard Kipling is promoting in this line?

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!
