The Miracle at Knock

21st August 1879,

Dear Diary,

This evening, I was walking back home with my friend Mary. The rain was terrible so we took a short cut around the back of the town church. As soon as we turned the corner, we saw the most glorious sight: stood against the wall of the church was the Blessed Virgin Mary. With her was Saint Joseph, Saint John and an altar with a lamb and a cross on it. Mary and I could not believe what we were seeing. We started to shout and lots of other people came to the church. They could see it too!
